Rep. Jil Tracy is announcing that she will run for election in 2010

Dear Friends,

I wanted you to be the first to know I've begun circulating petitions for my re-election as your State Representative in the 2010 primary. Back in 2006, I felt a need to become involved in Illinois State government because I sensed our State was headed in the wrong direction. Needless to say, it has been a tumultuous time in Illinois history. However, my resolve to stay involved and serve this District and the State to the best of my abilities remains intact.

As your State representative, I have been able to use my skills to serve on the House Impeachment Committee. I have been active in defeating the 2008 gross receipts tax and I have stood firm against major tax hikes in an economic recession and insisted on reforms in spending and reforms in transparency and ethics. This year I served not only on the historical Impeachment Committee, but also, the Transportation, Roads and Bridges Committee, the Consumer Protection Committee, Minority Spokesperson of Environmental Health Committee, Minority Spokesperson of Vehicle Safety Committee, Juvenile Justice Reform Committee, Higher Education Appropriation Committee, Family Law Revision Committee, Task Force on Pre Need Burial and Cemetery Trusts, and the Aging Committee.

I want to continue to serve this District to preserve the quality of life we have enjoyed in our area. My goal is to work towards making our State government fiscally responsible and live within its means. We need to encourage economic development so that our citizens can work and thrive in their chosen communities. Our primary focus should be providing good quality public education for all Illinoisans so they can provide for themselves through the free enterprise system. We need a safety net for our most vulnerable citizens. And finally, we need a good transportation and infrastructure system.
